Self-Adaptive Dressings to Reduce Pain in Inflammatory Wounds, Minimize Painful Debridements, and Heal from the Outside in

FOUR CASES OF ATYPICAL ULCERS ASSOCIATED WITH AUTOIMMUNE DISORDERS

Sandi E. Jiongco, MSN, FNPC, CWCN-AP, CFCN, WCC, DWC and Steffani Bechiga, RN, BSN • Edward Hospital Wound and Hyperbaric Center, Naperville, IL

Case 1: Full epithelization in under 2 months of chronic lower extremity ulcer present for 7 months. Past treatment included: enzymatic debridement, silver cream, silver alginates, hydrogel, silver foam, thick cream, and silver.